CHARLENE GETS GOBBLER!— Harold H. Smith of the Heber Exchange presents Charlene Hull the 1st Prize turkey.

Charlene Hull Wins in Thanksgiving Contest

Wasatch Sr. High Seminary concluded its annual Thanksgiving Theme Contest with Sophomore Charlene Hull winning 1st place. The contest was open to all students of the Senior High Seminary, with the theme topic being "What Thanksgiving Means to Me".

The winner received a turkey donated by Heber Exchange Co.

Following is Miss Hull's winning essay:

"Thanksgiving is, as the name implies, a time for giving thanks for the many blessing we have. In such a fast-moving world, we often take our blessings for granted. And so I'm thankful for this moment to be thankful. As I'm writing this, I'm thankful that I'm me. I'm thankful for everyday things that I often take for granted, yet would be lost without. I'm glad to be able to see God's glorious creations, a golden sun in a clear blue sky, to hear the crunch of autumn leaves and the sweet song of a bird, to feel the rain on my face and the wind as it blows my hair, to smell roses and freshly baked cookies, and to taste apple pie topped with ice cream.

I'm grateful for my family. I love the treasured hours we spend together roasting weiners and marshmallows around the fireplace of going for a ride in the mountains, love each member of my family for all that they give to me. Since only one person could have this part in my family, I'm glad that I was the lucky one.

I'm thankful for my friends. Each has a warm personality and an understanding heart that make me feel so wanted and loved.

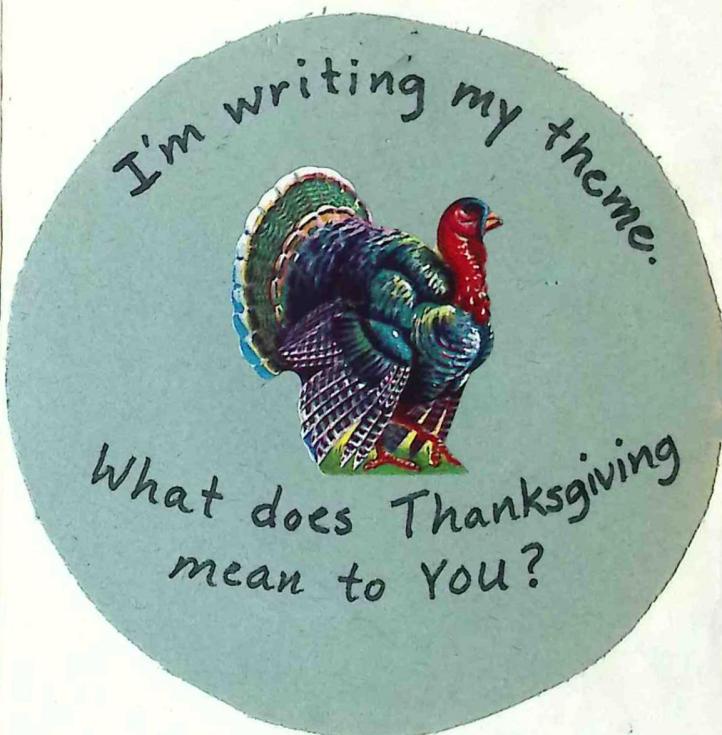

I'm grateful for my school and community. I'm grateful that this is my home and not some hut in the tropic jungles of southern Africa or in the frozen wastelands of northern Siberia. I'm thankful that I'm an American and I'm proud of my heritage.

I'm grateful for my Church. It has set my standards, given me a testimony and brought purpose into my life.

I'm thankful for love — to love as well as to be loved. I'm thankful for trials and failure, as well as success, for this brings growth and progress. I'm thankful for life — its joys and its sorrows; I'm thankful for this world — its treasures and beauties; I'm thankful to be thankful.

Gratitude brings such a warm feeling of security and peace. I think it fitting to pause for one day and thank our Father in Heaven for these innumerable blessings.

I'm thankful for Thanksgiving and all these things it means to me.
